

Craig Patrick: Sumitomo, Chief Administration Officer – He has over thirty years of domestic and international Human Resources experience. He is currently responsible for executing organizational strategies, programs and processes designed to support strategic goals and operational objectives for corporate and international administration functions. The responsibilities include the overall management of employment and related legal compliance, compensation, and executive support functions. He also has responsibility for management of the international assignment and expatriate programs, including tax equalization, and relocation, worldwide compensation and benefits.